Student's name: _____

SCHOOL REPORT

This morning Katherine James from School Report is visiting her old school, Park Street School.

It's quite a big school and at the moment 635 students are studying here. They're aged from twelve to eighteen. It's an old school too - 340 years old! Park Street is a day school and a boarding school. Lots of students come here every day to study, but 200 girls and boys live here at the school. At the moment I'm in the cafeteria and it's very noisy! I'm sitting with two girls, Ella and Dixie. They're in Year 10. That means they're revising for exams at the moment. Ella is studying very hard, three hours every night because the exams are very important. Dixie is a boarder, she sleeps at school, and she loves it. She says it's great fun. When they have exams, they study in a special room from 5 in the afternoon. The room closes at 9 in the evening. "It's hard at home, I can hear my family! My sister listens to music and my mum and dad watch TV," says Ella.

When they do not have exams, they do sports on Wednesday afternoons because there are no classes. They do swimming and football. Dixie and other boarders do sports at school every evening. Dixie plays tennis a lot in the summer. Does Ella want to be a boarder? "No, because I like living with my family!"
